WELCOME BACK

Welcome to the summer term 2019. There are lots of events and exciting learning opportunities planned for the summer. Please take the time to look at the dates and events coming up. (Please be aware these dates are correct at the time of printing but there may be occasions where dates have to be changed.)

ELMER DAY

Thank you for all the fundraising support last Friday for St Lukes. We have successfully raised in excess of £200, the final total will be shared soon. Our final design, which incorporates lots of the children's ideas, has been approved and the painting stage is underway.

TOPIC INSPIRATION

KS2 got into the spirit of their topic with a visit from the storyteller Steve Manning. They were fully immersed in their topics of WW2 and Romans and the costumes looked great!

AGE RESTRICTIONS

We have been asked by Devon and Cornwall Police to share with you the following information with regards to age restrictions for some social media use. Where there are safeguarding concerns linked to social media, they are finding that false information e.g. dates of birth have been shared in order for children to have access. They hope by sharing this information with parents, it will reduce children the risk of children becoming vulnerable online.
